

New Jersey's do not call call has made it much easier to spend quality time as a family without continuous telemarketing calls during family time. Please allow us to continue with this peace of mind at home with our families, without the continuous interruptions to the phone ringing with these unsolicited calls.

Sincerely,

John Ramos